Crystalline Silicon Photovoltaic glass is the best choice for projects where maximum power output per square meter is required. The power capacity of this type of glass is determined by the number of solar cells per unit, usually offering a nominal power between 100 to 180 Wp/m². This varies according to the solar cell density required for the project.

The application of the new anti - reflection coating process for photovoltaic glass will bring many positive impacts to the photovoltaic industry. In terms of power generation efficiency, reducing light reflection means that more light energy can enter the photovoltaic cell, thereby improving the photoelectric conversion efficiency.
