3. Methodology The photovoltaic system contains solar panels, inverters, power conditioning unit and network connected equipment. In addition, the cost of these components decreases continuously. The PV system is based on annual amount of energy produced, specific product and performance ratio [6].

The unexploited chance to develop a local PV panel producer market, however, could make Morocco dependent on imported PV panels, causing an increase in the upfront investment cost. From the end-user point of view, the comparison between electric tariffs and LCOE of rooftop-PV in Morocco has been thoroughly investigated by a study performed by ...

Photovoltaics (PV) is a way of harnessing solar energy to transform it into electricity. Solar panels are made up of PV cells built with a semiconductor material that reacts with the impact of photons of light. When a solar PV cell receives the impact of a photon can displace one electron from its outer layers creating an electric current.
