What are the best portable power stations?

To help you decide, I tested the efficiency, in a variety of scenarios, of the best portable power stations from Jackery, Oupes, EcoFlow, Anker, Goal Zero, Greccell, Bluetti, Dakota Lithium, Lion Energy, Vtoman, and Ugreen. What to Know Before Purchasing a Portable Power Station

Are portable power stations worth it?

Portable power stations are more powerful and cost effective than ever before. And, thanks to advances in lithium-ion battery technology, they're also lighter and more compact. Whether you've been dreaming of van life or are building out your emergency kit in advance of that next blackout, there is a power station that will meet your needs.

What devices can a portable power station run?

So long as your portable power station has the right ports and enough capacity, it can run a massive range of devices, including phones, laptops, and desktops. Higher capacity units will also let you power appliances and charge electric vehicles. Check which ports your preferred model has, including USB Type-A and Type-C, AC and mains sockets.

What is the best portable power station for backup?

Anker Solix F1200 (1,229Wh): This unit was previously known as the PowerHouse 757 from Anker, and was also CNET's previous pick for "best portable power station for backup." Its UPS mode was one of the earlier units to boast "less than 20ms" switchover time in the event of a power outage. It's also currently $500 off on Anker's site.

How much power does a portable power station use?

Most portable power stations have a rated output, usually between 2400W and 3600W, with peak outputs that can be higher for short periods. Next, consider the battery capacity, measured in watt-hours (Wh). This figure tells you how long the station can run before needing a recharge.

What accessories do you need for a portable power station?

Some useful accessories for portable power stations include a cord to connect to similar power stations in series (often doubling your power output), a light bar or extendable camping lights for visibility at night. Some models may come with these accessories, like Anker's Solix C800 Plus.
