Lithium-ion batteries dominate the EV market and represent about 49% of the global rechargeable battery market. Many of the minerals needed to produce them, including cobalt, lithium, manganese, nickel and graphite are available in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Zambia, South Africa, Madagascar, Mozambique, Tanzania or Gabon among others.

Over three decades since their initial development, the capabilities of lithium batteries continue to expand. Today's batteries offer increased run times, faster charging, and higher consistency of power. But there remains a difference between what the battery is capable of doing, and its ideal conditions for peak performance.

South Sudan, with its abundant sunlight and growing energy demands, presents a prime opportunity for solar energy. Aptech Africa designed, supplied, installed and commissioned the 174.4Kwp Off grid system in South Sudan with a 160kwh battery energy storage with Lithium- ion batteries from BYD. The system was roof mounted, 320 solar modules of 545w.
