industrial output thrives best where a conducive man-made socioeconomic environment exists. Natural resources must, therefore, be managed in ways to provide a basis for sustained development.

Porto Novo - technically the capital of Benin, although it feels like a small, sleepy town in comparison to sprawling, frenetic Cotonou. This was shot from the roof of the Hotel Les Ambassadeurs, thanks to the very helpful Director of Operations Elvire Akpovi. The hotel offers the best viewpoint in what is otherwise quite a low-rise city.
